OUR "SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL." ACT II.

UR very good Brother in the Masonic journalism of this country, whose eccentricities a few months since won for him the title of the Joseph Surface of our little world, has had another and seemingly a very strong attack of virtuous indignation, and devotes a considerable portion of his last issue to a Sheridian sermon on the backslidings of a "a paper professing to be representative of English Masonic opinion" which has "so far forgotten what is due to Masonry, to journalism, and to itself, as to charge the management of one of our great central Institutions with the perpetration of a 'job'" Then follows an extract from our issue of the 17th ult., so that of course we must recognise ourselves as the erring paper and take the scathing criticisms of our Brother to ourselves, after which we are told "it is almost needless to add that the body against which this alleged charge is laid is, as the context shows, the Board of Management of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys."

Here, Brother Joseph, we must at once join issue with you; we never said the Board was perpetrating a job, nor did we ever entertain such an idea, but we have no hesitation in expressing our view that the Board is being led astray in this particular work; and although the Craft may never learn the prime mover in what we still regard as an unfortunate investment, we should very much like just a couple of minutes "behind the scenes," to see who is pulling the wire. It is a very different thing to be the perpetrator of a "job" oneself, and to be the victim of one on the part of others, but distinctions such as this are generally overlooked by self appointed moral censors of the Joseph Surface order, although their existence is well known, and is fully considered by calm unbiassed thinkers ere they form their own opinion.

To say we argued that the members of the Board of Management of the Boys School were personally perpetrating a "job" is so utterly absurd as to be undeserving of refutation at our hands, and we can imagine the Brethren on the Board do not thank our contemporary for appointing itself their champion on this occasion, then putting such a construction on our words as it has done, and afterwards giving publicity to its silly ideas. We are known to most of the members of the Board, and feel there is no necessity to further explain ourselves so far as they are concerned; doubtless many of them, viewing last week's effort of our contemporary, are repeating the oft uttered prayer, "preserve us from our friends," and we sincerely sympathise with them. We regard each member of the Board as a straightforward, honest man of the world; but even with such personal reputation they would by no means be the first who, as a collective Board, were led astray, and even made to agree to actions in a corporate capacity they would not dream of individually; they have the confidence of their constituents, and no doubt those who, like ourselves, disagree with their present policy, will bow to the inevitable and join in furthering the future interests of the Institution in its new home. For ourselves, we should have preferred to let the whole matter rest, because we recognise that opposition to the scheme in its present form is so much waste of energy, but we still entertain the idea that the Craft will not have many years to wait—providing the proposal to remove to Bushey is carried out—ere they have reason to regret the acquisition of this particular site as an improvement on the existing property at Wood Green.

BEDFORDSHIRE.

THE annual meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge was held at the Town Hall, Dunstable, on Thursday, 29th ult., when the Provincial Grand Master Lord Ampthill occupied the chair, supported by the Deputy Provincial Grand Master Dr. Prior and other Provincial Officers.

After the reports of the various Lodges in the Province had been submitted and the other business concluded, the Provincial Grand Master appointed his Officers for the ensuing year. There were about sixty Brethren present. A banquet was afterwards held at the Sugar Loaf Hotel.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE.

THE annual Grand Lodge of this Province was held on Tuesday of last week, at the Lansdowne Hall, Stroud, and was attended by representatives of all the Lodges in the Province, nearly 200 Brethren being present, under the presidency of the Rt. Hon. Sir Michael E. Hicks Beach, Bart., M.P., Provincial Grand Master, who was attended by his Deputy Bro. R. V. Vassar-Smith P.G.D.

The meeting of Provincial Grand Lodge is usually held in Whit-week, and it was originally appointed for Whit Tuesday in the present year, but the conditions then prevailing at Gloucester appeared to make a postponement of the assembly expedient, and the fixture was accordingly held over until Autumn. The first business, after the Lodge had been opened in accordance with ancient custom, was the reading and confirmation of the minutes of the last regular meeting, on the 5th June 1895.

minutes of the last regular meeting, on the 5th June 1895.

Bro. Bruton, as Prov. G. Treas., presented his report. It showed a balance for disposal of £74 6s. Its adoption was moved from the chair and carried. The report of the Charity Committee of the Province (presented by Bro. Sumner Secretary) was also satisfactory. Two candidates from Gloucestershire had been elected to the Boys School in October last, and the Province had contributed a total of £1,116 to the Masonic Charities during the year.

A report on a scheme of Operative Masonry was the next subject for consideration. A Committee, consisting of the heads of the Lodges and Chapters of the Province, with the principal Officers of Prov. G. Lodge, and three or four other Brethren, had been appointed at the meeting of Prov.G.Lodge last year, upon the motion of the D.P.G.M, in accordance with a very general feeling that the time had come when the Province, which had of late years confined itself almost exclusively to charitable work, might undertake some work of Operative Masonry, such as had already marked stages in the history of Prov.G.Lodge. The beautiful reredos in the Cathedral, the Lady Chapel at Tewkesbury Abbey, and windows in the Parish Church at Cheltenham, were marks of Masonic liberality in this direction. The Committee was formed to choose and carry out some further work of restoration on behalf of the Province. From the report now presented it appeared that the Committee had met at Gloucester in October last, and having approved the proposal to undertake some special work and indicated the Cathedral as its proper object, had nominated a sub-Committee, consisting of

Bros. Vassar-Smith, the Baron de Ferrieres, R. P. Sumner, J. Bruton, J. B. Winterbotham, W. Ll. Evans, G. Norman, and Sewell, to confer with Bro. Waller, the Cathedral architect, on the subject. The report continued—

The Sub-Committee met on Monday, the 21st October 1895, at the Deanery. V.W. Bro. the Dean met the Sub-Committee, and promised his hearty support and co-operation in the proposed work. He suggested and explained various schemes for the restoration or decoration of some portion of the Cathedral. Nothing, however, so commended itself to the Brethren present as a suggestion for a restoration of the North Walk of the Cloisters, to make it match the work done in the East Walk, by restoring the mullions and tracery of the windows, opening them where they had been bricked up, and glazing them, and restoring the pinnacles to the Lavatory. It was determined, therefore, that Bro. Waller should ascertain the probable cost, and, if possible, do a small portion of the work, and submit the same at a subsequent meeting, that the general effect might be estimated before anything definite was decided on.

The Sub-Committee met again on the 7th February 1896, in the Cloisters. It was then seen that Bro. Waller had been able to do a portion of the work of restoration, and it was at once agreed by all that it was a work worthy to be undertaken by the Freemasons of the Province, from its distinctive character and beautiful effect. V.W. Bro. the Dean also explained that he proposed, in order to make the work as distinctive as possible, to insert a brass plate in the wall, to place on record there that the work was done by the Freemasons of the Province. The total cost of the work was estimated by Bro. Waller at £580, but as Bro. the Baron de Ferrieres subsequently generously undertook to do a portion of the glazing, the expense to be borne by the Province has been reduced to about £520. The Committee think it right to mention that Bro. the Baron de Ferrieres is making an outlay of more than double the amount he originally contemplated.

The recommendation of the sub-Committee was in due course approved by the Committee, a subscription list opened, and the work is now nearly completed. "From its interesting and permanent character it cannot fail to give satisfaction to all Masons who inspect it, and to impress the outside world with the generous activity of the Craft." The subscriptions received from the Lodges up to date amounted to about £420, and included donations of ten guineas each from the Prov.G.Master, his Deputy, the Dean of Gloucester, Bro. S. P. Ryland, and Bro. the Baron de Ferrieres, and one of twenty-five guineas from the G. Mark Lodge of the Province of Gloucestershire and Herefordshire.

The reading of the report by Bro. Winterbotham was followed by a paper by Bro. Waller, the Cathedral architect, who gave some interesting particulars relating to the work of restoration undertaken by the Committee. He said the Cloisters were among the most interesting in the Kingdom, and dated from the latter half of the fourteenth century. They were in the perpendicular style of architecture, a style which, it was interesting to note, was adopted earlier in Gloucestershire than in other parts of England. He added that the windows given by the Baron de Ferrieres had been put in and greatly set off the beauty of the Cloisters and the work the Masons had undertaken.

The Prov.G. Master proposed, and Bro. Norman seconded, the adoption of the report, and a vote of forty guineas from the funds of Prov.G. Lodge towards the deficiency remaining. Sir Michael remarked that the work was one which would reflect great credit upon the Province, and that their thanks were due to the Baron de Ferrieres, who, in adding the gift of the Cloister windows, had given another proof of his constant liberality in Masonic work.

The report and vote having been carried, Bro. Bruton was re-elected Treasurer, and Bro. Window Tyler to Prov.G. Lodge.

Various Charity votes were next passed, a special grant of 10gs. to the Scholarship fund of the Boys School being made, on the motion of the D.Prov.G. Master, seconded by Bro. Martyn, with the cordial approval of the Prov.G.Master, who remarked that the value of such a fund, in assisting promising boys, could not be over estimated.

On the motion of the Provincial Grand Master, seconded by Bro. Martyn, the D.Prov. G. Master was nominated for reelection upon the Committee of the School, and a subsequent resolution expressed confidence in the Committee, and gave the approval of the Province to the proposal which it had adopted to move the School from its present site at Wood Green to a greater distance from London, the Prov.G. Master joining in the general concensus of opinion that such removal was desirable.

The only other matter of more that routine interest was introduced by Bro. A. Daker, of Tewkesbury, who asked for the moral support of Prov.G. Lodge to an appeal about to be made to the Lodges throughout the country for help in the restoration of Tewkesbury Abbey. A resolution to this effect was seconded by Bro. Sir J. E. Dorington, who remarked on the difficulty with which small communities like that at Tewkesbury had to deal in keeping up as Parish Churches what are really national monuments. The Prov.G.M., in accepting the resolution, held out the hope that Prov.G. Lodge might be able to do something further for Tewkesbury, when its present responsibility was discharged.

The roll of the Lodges was then called, and the Prov. Gr. Master next proceeded to appoint and invest the Officers of Prov. G. Lodge for the anguing year as follow:

Prov. G. Lodge for the ensuing year, as follow:

There were also appointed to past rank, in commemoration of the completion of the 21st year of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales' Grand Mastership, Bro. Edwin Denning 951, and Bro. G. C. Hewitt 1363, who each received the dignity of P.P.J.G.W.

The Brethren subsequently dined together at the Subscription Rooms, Sir Michael Hicks Beach presiding.—"Cheltenham Examiner."

THE OLD STYLE.

HERE is no danger to the institution of Freemasonry, from what some over-sensitive, antiquated, fossilated stickiers for the "ancient forms and ceremonies" call innovations. There are but a few writers who behold the Masonic Fraternity in ruins, and all because modern Anglo-Saxon language is used in place of "ye olde style." They claim that the forms and ceremonies practiced in some of the new states, and old ones, too, as for that, are not what Grand Master Adam, or Moses, or Solomon followed, and are therefore not Masonic in their character, and that these new-fangled "innovations" are so many battering rams, beating against the foundations of the society. Their arguments would lead the uninformed to believe that the institution was built upon sand and could not withstand any attack.

The fact is, the past history of Masonry has proven that the fierce opposition of Papal encyclicals and ecclesiastical anathemas, the bitter attacks of political prejudice and ignorant superstition, have only strengthened the foundation upon which the superstructure has been erected. If the wave of determined political opposition in the early years of this century could not stamp it out of existence, but rather made its principles more deeply seated, then the puerile attacks of the present time afford no cause for alarm, and the elucidation of the sublime lessons taught in the Lodge room, which are styled by some as "innovations," will only make more apparent the true greatness of the institution.

Away with the idea that a huge wall must be built about every Lodge, and those who practice the ceremonies of initiation must slink about like sneak thieves afraid of being overtaken in some nefarious work. Or the other equally objectionable notion that virtue and purity exists alone within the "sacred circle of our particular set." Masonry is elevating in its teachings and purifying in its lessons, and why should not the elevating and purifying influences permeate the whole of society? In this way only will Masonry fulfil its real mission. In this way only will its light become pleasant and beneficial to the world at large. Its secrets will be carefully preserved, and if they were not, then those who reveal them become as outcasts, unworthy of confidence.

reveal them become as outcasts, unworthy of confidence.

The "profane" world, as we call those not initiated, are quick to discover the unfaithful and the traitor, and will as surely ostracise them as the Fraternity itself. So that the great ghost-like bugbears of "innovations," "modern additions," "public installations," and the like, do not in any way menace the stability of usefulness of the institution.—" Dispatch."

The ceremony of consecration will be rehearsed on Wednesday, 9th prox., by Bro. James Terry P.G.Sw.B., in the Lewisham Lodge of Instruction, No. 2579, at the Parish Hall, Ladywell.

GRAND CHAPTER.

THE Quarterly Convocation of Supreme Grand Chapter was held on Wednesday, at the Freemasons' Hall, and in the absence of the Prince of Wales, the Earl of Lathom, and Earl Amherst, the chairs of the three Grand Principals were taken by Companions W. W. B. Beach, M.P., Third Grand Principal; Lieutenant-General C. W. Randolph Grand Superintendent of Sussex, and Colonel J. C. Macglashan Grand Superintendent of the West Indies and Central America. The business set out in the agenda we published last week was regularly disposed of, the meeting being little else than a formal confirmation of the different reports.

By Royal Warrant the Queen has been graciously pleased to grant to Bro. Baron de Bush Her Majesty's Royal license and authority to bear and use in this country the hereditary title and dignity of Baron, conferred upon him by His Highness the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and has directed that such license be recorded in the College of Arms.

Among the Brethren seeking admission to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution is Bro. A. W. Fenner Past Master of the Upton Lodge, No. 1227, one of the founders and Past Master of the Kingsland Lodge, No. 1693, P.Z., &c., who will make his second application at the next election, in May 1897. Bro. Fenner was an active Mason in his day, and won a host of friends, who rallied to his assistance in May last, when 2,456 votes were recorded on his behalf, giving him the fourth place among the unsuccessful. We hope he will be equally fortunate next year, as in that case his election would be assured. His case is well recommended by influential Brethren. Promises of support will be gladly received by Bro. Fenner, whose address is 21 Clinton Road, West Green, N.

At a meeting of representatives of the six Bury Craft Lodges Bro. F. W. Purcell P.M. P.P.G.A.D.C. (E.L.), one of the most widely-known Masons of the East Lancashire district, was, on the 29th ult., presented with illuminated addresses from all the Lodges, expressive of their appreciation of his work on behalf of the charitable Institutions of the Order. Brother Purcell was formerly proprietor of the Bury, Rochdale, and Derby Theatres. He has sold the first-named two theatres to the Northern Counties Theatre Syndicate, and he is now engaged in building a large theatre in Stoke Newington, London, which he expects to open next Easter. Mr. Purcell gave the local Lodges of Bury an annual benefit night, by which means about £400 has been raised on behalf of the charities. He was also presented with a Provincial Officer's jewel, and Mrs. Purcell with a tea-urn of exquisite design.—"Leeds Mercury."

While it is but right and just to reject and denounce false and ridiculous charges against Freemasonry, it is equally important to recognise the evils of which it is the cause. We are at present publishing a series of articles by a writer who has made its history and its action a particular study, and those who read these contributions cannot fail to perceive its real character. The instructive article on the same topic which Mr. Kegan Paul has contributed to "Cornhill" will also be read with keen interest. Mr. Kegan Paul, who was at one time a Freemason himself, writes with great moderation. His words unmistakably bear the stamp of truth. His view of the Craft is that whilst in England it is comparatively harmless, it had been associated on the Continent with all that is subversive of religion and order, and that the constant influx into the English-speaking countries and that the constant influx into the English-speaking countries of Jews and Continental Freemasons must necessarily bring into England much of the poison of the Continental sect. Moreover, as a faithful Catholic, he is convinced that the Papal opposition to Freemasonry is well grounded. It has been condemned in special Bulls by Clement XII., Benedict XIV., Pius VII., Leo XII., and Pius IX., and Leo XIII. has directed an Encyclical against the society.—"Catholic Times."

NECESSITY OF LIBRARIES.

MASONRY has ever been a patron of knowledge, and has deemed it not only a duty, but a privilege, to foster the liberal arts and sciences; and, as the handmaid of the Divine Teacher, has ever taught men to believe in the immortal doctrine of the "fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man." We claim that our order is "ancient and honourable"; and if we are proud of its past history, it certainly behoves its votaries to make use of all honourable means attainable to make sure that our society, which has stood the test of time, shall move forward in the future in all things which tend to the improvement and advancement of our brotherhood. The history of Masonry proves that its votaries have ever been the promoters of progress and improvement, and that the human race has received and derived great benefit from the existence of our order. No organisation which history records can lay claim to preserve the rights of the individual as does our institution. As the roots of a thrifty tree stretch out into the earth as widely as do its branches into the air, and so come into relation with their surroundings, so does Masonry interlace with and take its form and pressure, its growth and bent, from contemporaneous matters. The need of Masonic books, to obtain a comprehensive knowledge of the origin and progress pertaining to our institution, and to learn of its growth and development, make apparent the necessity for the collection of Grand Lodge libraries, that members of our order can look into the medium of the printed page, which the authors and writers of the past and present, making history, leave to the fraternity for each generation.

That place that does Contain my books the best companion is, To me a glorious court, where hourly I Converse with the old sages and philosophers.

Although our ritual has been transmitted orally through many centuries yet, to the student, Masonry, as a science, and its early history can only be imparted and transmitted through the books of our libraries. Unless it be the State or National libraries, which are supported by liberal appropriations, the students of specialties and reference look to the valuable libraries of institutions specitally devoted to the consideration of subjects in which they are in quest of information and directly interested. To the enlightened Mason knowledge is of the first importance. A library, such as this Grand Lodge possesses, embodying the highest theoretical and practical principles of our order, which can be said to constitute the existence of Masonic literature and its science, should be preserved and fostered for all time, and made a source of value to the fraternity.—Herman G. Carter, Grand Lodge Librarian, New York, in "Voice of Masonry."

The section of the Congress presided over by Canon Didiot, after hearing addresses by Père Regnanet (of the Society of Jesus) and Père Edmond (of the Assumption), adopted the following resolutions on the proposal of Père Durand: "The National Congress of Rhiems, considering with the Anti-Masonic Congress at Trent that Freemasonry is the great enemy of the Church and of all Catholic works, considering also that the Eucharistic devotions are of all the most essentially and most radically Anti-Masonic, holds (1) That all Catholics should encourage to the utmost of their power the movement of souls toward the Eucharist, and should strive to multiply more and more demonstrations of faith, love, and reparation in respect of this Sacrament, the chief object of the terror and hatred of Freemasons, but the supreme honour and joy of the children of God and the assured pledge of their victory over all their enemies, visible and invisible; (2) That among works of reparation they should set their hearts especially on sustaining that whose object is to have Masses daily said in atonement of the profanation of this sect."—" Catholic Times."

After the usual monthly meeting of the Lodge of Repose, at the Masonic Hall, Derby, on the 15th ult., a conversazione was held in the supper room, and was largely attended by Brethren and visitors, including a number of ladies. Dr. F. S. Rowan the Worshipful Master was present, and a capital musical programme was gone through, the pianists being Bros. Dodd and Thompson. Refreshments were supplied during the evening, and the gathering was so successful that no doubt the innovation and the gathering was so successful that no doubt the innovation will be tried again in the near future. It is the first time, the "Derby Express" believes, in the Province of Derbyshire, that a conversazione of this kind has taken the place of the dinner which usually follows the meeting of Lodge.

The Earl of Yarborough Provincial Grand Master of Lincolnshire honoured the Ancholme Lodge, No. 1282, Brigg, with his presence on Tuesday, 20th ult., and congratulated the Worshipful Master, Officers and Brethren of the Lodge on the admirable manner in which they discharged their various duties. A banquet was afterwards held at the Angel Hotel, at which the Earl was present, and the loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured.

A deputation from the Thomas Valentine Lodge, No. 21 (I.C.), under the leadership of Bro. J. M'Alpine W.M., left Belfast a few days back for Ayr, where, adoldring to arrangements previously made, the deputation intended visiting Newton-on-Ayr St. James Lodge, No. 125 (S.C.), with which they were connected through the honorary membership of Bros. Sterling P.M. and R. B. Andrews P.M. It may be mentioned that just two years ago this Scotch Lodge visited Lodge No. 21, and ever since close fraternal friendship has existed. The party arrived in good time in Ayr, where they were met by the reception Committee, and accorded a hearty and enthusiastic welcome to the "auld toon o' Burns," and, having been seated in well-appointed brakes, were conducted to a commodious hotel, where ample provision had been made for refreshing the inner man. The remainder of the visit was spent in various forms of enjoyment and entertainment.

COMPLIMENTARY BANQUET AT LIVERPOOL.

A NUMEROUS and thoroughly representative assembly of the leaders of the Order took place on Thursday evening, 29th ult., at the Masonic Hall, Hope Street, Liverpool, when Bro. E. R. Latham Past Master of the Downshire Lodge, No. 594, was entertained at a banquet, the compliment being extended to him in recognition of his personal worth and his valuable services in connection with the Order.

Between seventy and eighty Brethren of varied ranks sat down to dinner, under the presidency of Bro. Dr. G. Johnson P.M. 1182 (Chairman of the Committee of arrangements), with whom were associated Bros. C. Fothergill P.P.G.D. and F. Wilkinson P.M. 594 (Vice-Chairmen), Bro. R. G. Bradley P.P.D.G.D.C. (Treasurer and D.C.), Bro. S. L. Fraser P.G.S. of W. (Secretary), assisted by a strong staff of Stewards.

The Chairman proposed in appropriate terms the toast, Our Guest Bro. E. R. Latham P.M. 594, and Bro. Latham, in reply, said he would continue to endeavour to merit their friendship and respect.—"Liverpool Mercury."

EXMOUTH MASONIC CLUB.

THE third annual meeting of the shareholders of this Company was held at the Club on Wednesday, 28th ult., at which there was a fair number of directors and shareholders present, under the presidency of Bro. J. T. Foster, who, in congratulating the shareholders on the continued success of their undertaking, announced a balance in hand of £70 4s 11d, as against £40 16s 10d last year. The sum of £24 10s was required to meet dividends due on preference shares, and the directors again recommended a dividend of 5 per cent on the ordinary shares held by the Sun Lodge, the balance to be carried forward. The results were considered highly satisfactory. satisfactory.

ENGLISH FREEMASONRY.

THE following letter appeared in a recent issue of our contemporary, the "Tablet:"

SIR,—I quite agree with your correspondent "Mr. Norbert Jones, C.R.L., of Siamouth." His view as a Catholic, without, as I presume, any practical experience of English Freemasonry, is exactly what mine would be, had I never been an English Freemason. But mine is modified by practical experience. As I have already mentioned, while still a Protestant, I became a Freemason before I was twenty-one, by "dispensation," at Cambridge. Our Master, the Rev. Mr. Ward, of St. John's, kind, most amiable, genial, an excellent musician ("and of such is the kingdom of heaven," to quote the well-known epitaph), instructed me and others in Masonry before we joined the Lodge. He was a High Churchman, as High Churchmanship was understood in those days, and as such I am quite convinced he would never have encouraged us youngsters to become Masons had he personally seen the slightest harm in it. slightest harm in it.

have encouraged us youngsters to become Masons had he personally seen the slightest harm in it.

Subsequently, years after, he ceased from active participation in Masonry, and I rather fancy, though I do not pretend to know, he did so from purely religious motives. I infer that in the latter portion of his life he would not have recommended any one to become a Mason.

The work from which Mr. Jones quotes may be regarded as giving a correct account of all grades in Masonry up to and inclusive of the Master's Degree. Beyond this I cannot speak from personal experience. I remember how carefully our Master, Ward, impressed on us that "nothing would be required of us incompatible with our civil, moral, or religious duties." Therefore, decidedly unpleasant as sounds the penal portion of the Masonic Obligation, correctly quoted by Mr. Jones, we were able to take the oath, feeling sure on the authority of our friend, the Master of the Lodge, a High Church clergyman of the University, that Masonry, according to the instruction given to the candidate "is founded on the purest principles of piety and victue."

"Vows of fidelity are required; but let me assure you that in these vows there is nothing incompatible with your civil, moral, or religious duties."

I feel certain that the majority of English Masons read their oath in the light of this safeguard. To many excellent English Masons Freemasonry is a genial form of religion: to some it is socially and politically useful. It is patronised by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, and that is, to not a few, a great attraction and a strong recommendation. Catholics, of course, can but hold one opinion as to Deistic Secret Societies, or indeed as to any Secret Societies altogether condemned by the Church. I am now speaking of myself when a Protestant, among Protestants, just on forty years ago.

We shall be pleased to receive particulars of Masonic meetings for insertion in our columns, and where desired will endeavour to send a representative to report Lodge or other proceedings.

CRAFT: PROVINCIAL.

BRECKNOCK LODGE, No. 651.

N Tuesday of last week the members held a meeting at the Town Hall, Brecon, for the installation of the new Worshipful Master Bro. T. A. R. Littledale, and for the reception of Lord Llangattock Prov. Grand Master. The large assembly room had been tastefully arranged for the occasion, and there was a large gathering of Masons from Brecon and from adjoining Lodges. Bro. Marmaduke Tennant Deputy Provincial Grand Master performed the installation ceremony, and in the evening a banquet was held at the Castle Hotel.

EGERTON LODGE, No. 1030.

THE annual meeting and Festival of St. John took place at the George

HE annual meeting and Festival of St. John took place at the George Hotel, Heaton Norris, on Monday, 19th ult., Bro. Geo. Ben Goodfellow W.M. There was a good attendance of members and visitors, to witness what ultimately proved to be a very excellent function, that of installing Bro. James W. Abbott P.M. P.P.G.D.C. into the chair of K.S.

Bro. Abbott having been regularly presented, answered the constitutional questions, and was for the second time in his Masonic experience placed in that position which entitles him to rule and govern the Lodge for a period of twelve months.

Bro. Goodfellow was the Installing Master, he being assisted by other Past Masters, notably Bros. Abm. Pemberton P.P.G.D.C., who presented and explained the Working Tools of the three degrees, and also delivered the address to the W.M.; W. A. Vaughan, who rendered the address to the Wardens; George Lingard Vaughan P.D.G.Reg., who addressed the Brethren generally, and Dr. Henry Wilson, who invested and addressed the following Officers: Bros. A. E. Broome S.W., Geo. E. Wright J.W., Abm. Pemberton P.M., &c., Treas., Thos. Knott P.M. Secretary, T. B. Brooks S.D., Chas. Porter J.D., Dr. Wilson P.M. D.C., W. A. Bacon I.G. Bro. Abbott was re-appointed Charity Representative.

J.D., Dr. Wilson P.M. D.C., W. A. Bacon I.G. Bro. Abbott was re-appointed Charity Representative.

Following closely upon the ceremony of installation was a recherché banquet, provided by Mr. T. S. Weekes, proprietor of the hotel, to which all the Brethren sat down.

The loyal toasts having been disposed of, Bro. Abbott W.M. proposed the health of the Prov. Grand Master Col. Starkie, and subsequently that of the Deputy Prov.G.M. Capt. C. R. N. Beswicke-Royds.

The latter, in replying, apologised for having to leave at an early hour, adding that trains and appointments would wait for no one. Before closing his interesting remarks, he gave a slight forecast of one or two matters which are likely to occupy the attention of the next Provincial meeting, and which for obvious reasons we do not repeat here.

The latter, in Felying, apologised for lawing to leave at an early nour, adding that trains and appointments would wait for no one. Before closing his interesting remarks, he gave a slight forecast of one or two matters which are likely to occupy the attention of the next Provincial meeting, and which for obvious reasons we do not repeat here.

Bro. Capt. E. G. Lingard P.M. P.P.J.G.W. proposed the health of the W.M. He said it was a most gratifying thing for a man to be able to look back upon the fact that he was in the position of having been a member of his Lodge for a period of twenty-five consecutive years, without having missed a single regular meeting. He also reverted to a letter which had been addressed to a contemporary, asking for information as to any parallel case, and as no reply had been vouchsafed, he concluded that in this respect Bro. Abbott stood without a rival. A communication had been received from Bro. G. Wm. Speth, Bromley, Kent, to the same effect. Bro. Speth adduced two instances which we think may prove interesting to our readers. He says:—"I was initiated in the Lodge of Unity, No. 183, in January 1872, went into office in November 1873, into the chair in March 1876, and from 1880 have been Organist and Secretary to date. It is close on twenty-five years ago now, and I have only missed, I think, four meetings, regular and emergencies included, and in each case I was either abroad, or in bed, once under the surgeon's hands. Besides the minor offices up to the chair, I have, you will see, nearly seventeen years of continuous office to my credit, most of the time Secretary. In the Quatuor Coronati I was appointed Secretary at the first meeting, in January 1886, and have attended every regular meeting, emergency, Committee and excursion from then to date."

"The other case is Bro. S. Richardson, who was initiated in Unity, No. 183, in October 1877, became I.G. in March 1881, followed up and went through the chair two years running, appointed D.C. on his leaving it to date, and has attende whenever they were called upon. He felt that they had paid him a very graceful compliment that day, and though he might not be able to fully express his gratitude in words, yet he would so try to conduct himself as not to give them cause for regret in having placed him for the second time in the chair of K.S.

to give them cause for regree in having grades chair of K.S.

The toast of the I.P.M. was proposed by Bro. Walter Vaughan P.M.
P.P.G.Reg. who concluded his speech by requesting the W.M. to pin upon the breast of Bro. Goodfellow a Past Master's jewel presented to him twelve months ago, but which upon his completion of a second period of Mastership, had been amended to meet the circumstances. The jewel contained the following legend:

Presented to Bro. Geo. B. Goodfellow, by the Brethren of the Egerton Lodge, No. 1030, for valuable services as W.M. 1894-5.

The emendation was as follows:

W.M. 1894-5 1895-6.

Bro. Goodfellow replied in a very neat and apropos speech.

Many other toasts were proposed and duly responded to, the proceedings being enlivened by the musical and recitative efforts of Bros. Fred Hilton P.M. 1458 P.P.G.D.C., Robert Dottie P.M. 1161, Sam Luke J.D. 2363, W.

P.M. 1458 P.P.G.D.C., Robert Dottie P.M. 1161, Sam Luke J.D. 2363, W. A. Bacon, and others.

Besides those already mentioned, there were present Bros. Chas. S. Lowe P.M. 764 P.P.S.G.W., G. R. Brady P.M. 322 P.P.G.D. (Cheshire), Henry Lomas P.M. 323 P.P.S. of W., Col. S. W. Wilkinson P.M. Bro. James W. Abbott P.M. Past Provincial Grand Director of Geremonies, whose portrait we reproduce in this issue, is a well-known Manchester personality, not only Masonically speaking, but in commercial circles also. For many years past we have seen his posters placed side by side with other mural literature—true and undisputed signs of a desire to make headway in the struggle which business of the present day inexorably compels. To North of England readers of this notice it will scarcely be necessary to say that he is a printer, and that his premises are situate in Fennel Street, Manchester, where he has been located for a period of 33 years. How he has managed to devote so much time to Freemasonry and yet keep pace with the requirements of his numerous customers, will be best answered by the fact that he is not governed by impulse; he possesses every qualification of inherent strength which can formulate, devise, and supervise, and, untinged by any traditional formalism, he can be firm without ostentation, and rigidly exact without being misunderstood or decried. Both in Freemasonry and in business he seems to be governed by rules and regulations almost as stringent and obligatory as one of those vermillion edicts of a Chinese emperor, which binds to strict and uncompromising duty. No wonder then that he has been successful where other men would have failed, and as an instance of this we may cite that in the year 1884 the Prov. Grand Master of East Lancashire Col. Starkie appointed him as Prov. Gr. Asst. Dir. of Cers., while in 1885 he sent him another step higher, to that of Prov. Gr. Dep. Dir. of Cers., and in the following year (1886) still further advanced him to the position of Prov. Gr. Dir. of Cers.

He is a Life Governor of the East Lancashire Systematic Masonic Educational and Benevolent Institution, and for several years has been a member of the relief and education boards in connection therewith. He is a Mar Bro. James W. Abbott P.M. Past Provincial Grand Director of

Abbott's connection with the Installed Masters' Lodge of

Bro. Abbott's connection with the Installed Masters' Lodge of Instruction, which now numbers about forty members, is only of two years duration, but this institution, of which he was founder, has made its mark throughout Manchester, and will stand as a memento of his unswerving devotion to the cause of Freemasonry.

To give another instance of his indefatigability, he has paid upwards of ninety visits to Lodges in his own Province, and is well known as a sound, faithful, and correct worker of all the ceremonies of Craft Masonry, being frequently called upon to take that of installation in various parts of the Province, as reported in this journal.

In conclusion, although Bro. Abbott may not assume the gentle, deferent air which is often attractive in a man, yet his punctilious conscientiousness has gained for him a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and if he is content to accept without cavil this our eulogy of him, which, after all, is only a deciduous laurel, we portend that the time must come when his work will undoubtedly claim for him an honoured place in the hagiology of East Lancashire Freemasonry.

BENEVOLENCE LODGE, No. 1168.

THE installation of Bro. W. B. Wildman as Moster took place in the new Lodge Room, at Sherborne, on Tuesday, 27th ult., when amongst the Brethren present were the Deputy Prov. Grand Moster Bro. Colonel Brymer, M.P. The ceremony of installation was performed by Bro. A. J. Drewe P.M. A banquet was afterwards held at the Digby Hotel.

The Provincial Grand Master, in responding to his health, which was proposed with that of the other Provincial Officers, by Bro. P.M. Rutland, made an eloquent speech, in the course of which his lordship expressed his pleasure at being present. Masonry, he said, was older than monarchs or democracy. It was as old as the Bible, and had cemented high and low, rich and poor, in one almighty brotherhood. He urged that charity was the beginning and end of Freemasonry, and in carrying out its principles they were doing the work of their Maker. There was no problem more difficult than the dealing with the vagrant poor and the aged and distressed, and if a man was capable of being a master of a workhouse, as was their W.M. that evening, he was capable of being the master of a Lodge whose first principle should be the relief of distressed Brethren in every sphere of life. Other toasts followed. toasts followed.

N Tuesday, 3rd inst., the annual meeting was held in the Freemasons' Hall, Ingham Street, South Shields.

P.P.J.G.D., and the ceremony was ably performed by the retiring W.M., who was afterwards presented with a handsome Past Master's jewel, in recognition of his services to the Lodge, and as a mark of esteem from the Brethren.

Bro. Runcieman having received the congratulations of the visiting Brethren, the Lodge was closed in due form.

Subsequently the annual banquet was held, an excellent dinner being served by Bro. W. H. Curry. Bro. Runcieman W.M. presided, supported by Bro. R. Hudson Provincial Grand Secretary Durham, and others.

The usual loyal and Masonic toasts were honoured, the members of the Masonic choir and other Brethren rendering various glees and songs.

especially as it will afford greater convenience to Officers attending the Lodge.

The first assembly at the Club House was on the evening of the 22nd ult., on the occasion of the installation of the Worshipful Master for the year. It was at the unanimous wish of the Lodge that Bro. Colonel John Davis, A.D.C., had consented to accept a second year of office, and he was duly installed by Bro. Surgeon-Major Grier. The Worshipful Master was also the recipient of a handsome Past Master's jewel, presented to him in acknowledgment of his services in the chair during the past year.

A banquet, served by Mr. Peters, the Club Steward, followed the installation. The W.M. presided, and was well supported, there being a good assemblage of members and visitors, among the latter Bro. Richard Eve P.G.Treas.

APOLLO LODGE, No. 2042.

TOR the first time in the history of this Lodge, the wives, sisters, and other lady relatives and friends were entertained to dinner at the Masonic Hall, Liverpool, on Friday evening, 30th ult., by the members of the Lodge, and so much interest was taken in the gathering that 115 sat down to a substantial banquet, including all the delicacies of the season, served by Bro. Casey in his best style.

The Worshipful Master Bro. Harry Round Prov.G.Std. occupied the chair, and was supported by the Past Masters of the Lodge and others.

The usual loyal toasts having been enthusiastically given and received, the musical Brethren, of whom there are a vast number in the Apollo, gave those present a choice programme of the very best selections, they providing their own orchestra, led by Bro. E. Clayton.

It need hardly be said that the whole proceedings were marked by a degree of enthusiasm and good fellowship seldom witnessed outside the Masonic finaternity, remarks the "Liverpool Post," and much of the success was due to Bros. Round, Nichells, Lane, Kirby, Dunn and Howell, who had the arrangements in hand.

SHIRLEY WOOLMER LODGE, No. 2530.

SHIRLEY WOOLMER LODGE, No. 2530.

THERE was much interest manifested on Tuesday, 20th inst., in the meeting of this Lodge, owing to the installation of Bro. Edward Layton, of Sidcup House, as W.M. for the ensuing year. Bro. Layton is well-known in the district, taking part as he does in all social movements, and being ever ready and willing to place his dramatic abilities at the service of the neighbourhood for the assistance of the funds of its various deserving Institutions. By the unanimous vote of the Brethren of the Lodge he was elected their Worshipful Master, in succession to the popular and indefatigable Bro. Edward Blanks. There was a large gathering of Brethren.

One of the first and most pleasing duties of the W.M. was the presentation to Bro. E. Blanks of a handsome Past Master's jewel, he accompanying the same with some appropriate remarks, culogistic of the able and energetic services rendered by the W.M. during his year of office.

Bro. E. Blanks having expressed his thanks and appreciation of the kindness of the Brethren, the Lodge was closed, after settling several business matters.

Matters.

At six o'clock the Brethren adjourned to the Charing Cross Hotel, London, where the banquet was held. By the kindness of Bro. C. Sheath two special saloon carriages were provided by the South Eastern Railway Company, at Sidcup station, and the Brethren were able to reach the hotel about seven o'clock in comfort. About fifty guests sat down to dinner, which was provided in the grand dining saloon, and was all that could be wished, the menu being of a recherché character.

SUCCESSFUL and highly interesting meeting of this Lodge was held at Freemasons' Hall, on Tuesday of last week, Brother J. E. Gerlach

W.M.

The Lodge was opened, the minutes confirmed, and other preliminary business transacted. Messrs. Edward H. Whiston, William Bartlett, William Offord, and Ernest G. Watkins, having received Masonic introduction and report, were admitted to the Order. The Master opened the Lodge in the second degree, Bro. Bullock entered through. The Lodge was advanced to the third degree, and Bros. Burg and Craggs received the benefits of this.

Bros. Alfred Barrell, Camden Lodge, No. 704 and Francis T. Lyle, Peace and Concord Lodge, No. 445, were received as joining members.

The Master resumed the Lodge in the first degree, when some interesting business was transacted. Among communications came announcement of the death of Bro. Henry Dowding, and a message of sympathy from the Lodge was arranged to be sent to P.M. Bro. Harry Dowding. A letter of hope for speedy and full recovery was also arranged to be forwarded by Bro. Secretary to Bro. Bull Treasurer. The Masonic business being concluded the Lodge was closed.

After the banquet, which was well served in the Glee Room, the Master proposed the primal toasts, each of which had full recognition.

Master proposed the primal toasts, each of which had full recognition.

The 1.P.M., in proposing continued health and happiness to the W.M., said that the Master had set the lead of brevity upon all speakers, and however tempting the opportunity might be, the Master's law must be obeyed. The proposition was, though, one that would be so popular that it did not require any speech to obtain a hearty recognition.

The W.M., in reply, thanked the company for the cordial way the proposition had been received, and assured them that the Prudent Brethren Lodge always had his care. He trusted that his full endeavours to carry out the duties of the Lodge in the way that a Master should, would always meet with their satisfaction. In appreciative terms he gave the toast of the I.P.M.

with their satisfaction. In appreciative terms he gave the toast of the I.P.M.

The I.P.M. having briefly returned thanks, the Master submitted the proposition of the Initiates, assuring them not only of a welcome, but that the higher offices of Freemasonry were open to all who devoted attention and study to the science.

Bros. Bartlett, Whiston, Offord and Watkins having briefly replied, the Master gave the toast of the Visitors, to whom he expressed thanks for their company, which was highly appreciated always by the Brethren of the Todge.

company, which was highly appreciated always of the Lodge.

Replies were given by Bros. Wilson, Mackintosh and Watkins.

In proposing the Treasurer and Secretary the Master read a letter from Bro. Treasurer giving fraternal good wishes to the Lodge, and the hope that his health would soon permit him to rejoin their assemblies. After a humorous reply from Bro. Haswell Secretary, the Master proposed the Past Masters, to whom he extended thanks for their continued interest.

Bro. Coleman, on behalf of his colleagues and himself, expressed obligations for the courteous language and reception of the proposition.

To the toast of the Officers, Bro. Veare J.W. gave assurance of devotion to the Lodge and loyalty to the Master.

Bro. P.M. Murray, in an interesting speech of some detail, alluded to the importance of the three Institutions, and advanced a hope that the Prudent Brethren Lodge would be found enrolled among the good supporters of them.

The Tyler's toast closed the proceedings, which were business-like and cordial throughout.

The Tyler's toast closed the proceedings, which were business-like and cordial throughout.

Full credit is due to W.M. Bro. Gerlach, says the "Holborn Guardian," for his excellent working in all the ceremonies, and for his complete readiness in all of them, a tribute which will be the more easily appreciated beyond the Lodge, as it was within the Lodge, when it is remembered that there were all of the three ceremonies to work, and that the whole, including routine and other business, was accomplished in two and-a-half hours.

There was an excellent musical programme, accompanied by Bro. A. Wilson. the accomplished vocalist and Organist of the Lodge, and in which Bros. Hampton, Gabe, Taylor, Barrell and Kinnard took part.

ASAPH LODGE, No. 1319.

THE twenty-seventh installation meeting of this Lodge was held at Freemasons' Hall, on Monday, 2nd inst.

The Lodge was established in 1870 for the convenience of members of the musical and dramatic professions. Originating with the musical profession, the Lodge was named after Asaph, "the sweet singer of Israel," but music and the drama being so closely connected, the Lodge membership is pretty equally distributed between the two professional branches, and the Masters and other Officers of the Lodge have also been similarly chosen.

Bro. C. C. Cruikshanks was the Master for 1895-96, and he presided on Monday at the opening business of the Lodge; but as Bro. F. H. Macklin, the Master for 1894-95, was in America last November with Bro. Henry Irving's company, and consequently was not able to instal Bro. Cruikshanks, the latter Brother ceded to him the installation of Bro. George Johnson, an old and well-known member of the Lyceum company, as Master of the Lodge for the ensuing twelve months.

for the ensuing twelve months.

Bro. Cruikshanks was presented with a valuable Past Master's jewel.

The Brethren, after the appointment of the new Officers, dined at Freemasons' Tavern, says the "Daily Chronicle," and enjoyed a splendid selection of music between the speeches.

The Lodge was opened, and the minutes confirmed. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bros. Allan F. Caudwell and J. E. V. Oldham were passed. The Lodge was resumed in the first degree, and for this Mr. John Ward and Mr. William H. Hunt, having received proposal and report, were admitted. The next business before the Lodge was the choice by the Brethren of the Worshipful Master, the call coming to Bro. John Mansell S.W., and this being duly acknowledged, Bro. James J. Stockall P.M. was re-chosen as Treasurer. Other interestingly important matters were brought before the Master, and with the disposal of some of them and the adjournment of others, the Lodge was closed, says the "Holborn Guardian."

At the banquet, the Master Bro. Dr. W. J. Hunter P.M. presided, and

At the banquet, the Master Bro. Dr. W. J. Hunter P.M. presided, and afterwards briefly proposed the toasts which always have precedence of the Masonic list, and these having been fully honoured, the I.P.M., in felicitous and hopeful terms, that will be well understood, proposed the Lodge's wish for "Good health to the W.M." who, for reasons that will also be well understood, very briefly replied.

The sections were worked in accordance with the programme given in our issue of the 24th ult., except that Bro. Cohen took the second section of the first lecture, in place of Bro. R. P. Member he could but wish they could confer some further honour upon him. He again thanked him most sincerely. The proposal was seconded by Bro. H. Hill P.M., and unanimously supported by the members and visitors alike.

The W.M., in acknowledgment, said he most sincerely thanked them for the vote of thanks, but he had specially to thank Bro. Cohen for his kind assistance, as it was nearly eight years since he has worked the fifteen sections; whenever they might require his services they only had to make a call upon him, and he would willingly do all that lay in his power.

The W.M. proposed that a vote of thanks be recorded to the Brethren who had worked the different sections, also to Bro. Powell S.W., for his able assistance, to which vote the S.W. made suitable response.

The following Brethren were elected members:—Jos. Jacobs, J. Robinson, A. Watkins, E. Williams, R. P. Walkden P.M., while Honorary Membership was conferred on Bro. J. Wynman, our representative, which latter compliment we fully appreciate, as evidence o

EXTRACT FROM A LECTURE ON "FOODS," BY Dr. ANDREW WILSON.—
"The consumption of cocoa happily increases year by year. I say happily," because, as tea and coffee are not foods, while cocoa is a true food, any increase in the national nutrition means an increase in the national prosperity. Winter, besides, is close upon us, and I advise those who are susceptible to colds to fortify themselves against chill by attention to their food. The easiest way of effecting this end for many is to substitute cocoa (Epps's being the most nutritious) for tea and coffee."

Criterion.—"Rosemary," the charming comedy in which Bro. Charles Wyndham has scored such a remarkable success, has now passed its 200th representation, and is nightly witnessed by crowded audiences. It has also achieved a marvellous success in New York, where Mr. John Drew has broken all the records at the Empire Theatre.
